Intimations. THE following Circular probibiting the exportation of Rice and Paddy from and English Hotel Queen's Bout West. Sister is published for general information. WM. ADAMSON. Acting Siamese Consuli Hongkoug, 26th January, 1865.

> Of the Netification of the Sispers Coverement, prohibiting the expertation of Rice and Paddy for seven Liner months, commonding with January 21th. 1805, and ending on the 20th of August should there then be a fair prospect of a good incoming crop. Otherwise to be continued another year. His Execliency Chow PHYA PHRA KLANA, Minister of Foreign Affairs, begs to notify the Cousule of the thrious Treaty Powers that the Ruling Authorities of Siam, having unadimously consulted rogether, in struct me to notify you, that, in the year of the Rai Sixth of the Decade, tho I Ith of the Raign of His Siemese Majosty, the present Bing, the Rice plantations of the West were overflowed, the other plantations suffered from drought. The people who cultitenths; in some instances one-tenth; and in some instances the Rice is a complete failure. Monice men under excitement bave been buying up rice till I has risen to two ticals per bucket. It has now fallen to 12 of a lical par bucket. Paddy bowever, Is still firm, 60 to 76 t'eats per coyan for good or inferior. The price of rice does not decrease. It is

Solicitor for the Executor, dear all through the provinces, and in the Capital. The people of the Picvinces. The poor and the embarrassod, who have it the means to purchase grain inust seek in the forests wild yems, and gather barnbog seeds to est instead of rice, sometimes they seek other substances and mik with rich for food. All are sufferers to a great extent. The present has re ched a crisis, which the Kag

Jub call famind, but which the Siamese call price dear-destitution. Should the experiation of rice not be closed, the poor people will murminingly cry out the contracting powers have mutually agreed upon provisions for the relief of the destitute, but the edardians of the Tresties in behalf of His Majesty the King, and the Consuls in behalf of Foreign cauntries, do not devise the means for the relief of the poor as provided for in these Treaties." The 6th Article of the Euglish, Treaty, 545

Whenever a scarcity may be apprehended of Salt, Rice and Fish, the Stamese Government reserve to themselves the right of prohibiting, by public proclamation, the experiation of these articles." The 8th Article of the agreement appagded to the Figlish Treaty, says. That a month's police shall be given by the Siamese Authorities in the Consul, prior to the enforcement of the prohibition and that British subjects who may previously obtain special permission from the Siemese authorities; to export a certain quantity of rice which they have already purchased, may do so even after the probibition comes in force."

The 20th Article of the French Treaty says, concerning, rice, fish and salt; - Toutefois, le Gouverpement Siapiois se réserve la faculté d'interdire . sortic du sel, du rix et de poissun pour le cas en il y o aurait lieu d'approbender une diseite dans le Hoyau-Porquite, $1. tre publico un mois à l'avence, pe saurait avoir su deun effet refronctif. Neanmoins, les pércoients Français averont avertir l'autorite des achate qu'ils auront faits autorieurement a la probibition."

Likewise in the Treaties which other countries have made, the stipulations are similar. Such are the stipulations of the Treatics. The Siamese Governinent desire the prespectly of the country, and perceive that if the expectation of rice is not forbidden, rice bolders, on perceiving the paidy is idear will convert it into cargo and table rice, will sell it to the ships and leave only enough for personal, consumption.
